Mr. Glenn Ramsey
1519 North Dixie
Cookeville, Tennessee

Dear Glenn:

I am writing to nominate the following two girls as possible recipients for the $200 alumni scholarship to Freed-Hardeman College.

Judy Gentry is a convert from the Baptist Church and has been a member of the Broad Street Church for more than two years during which time she has demonstrated remarkable spiritual growth and has been a teacher in our Bible school as well as participating in all other activities of the church. She lives at 133 N. Willow Avenue and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dawson Gentry. Judy is completing one year at Tennessee Tech but has a fervent desire to attend Freed-Hardeman College the second year. Her parents can neither support her nor are willing to support her to go to a Christian college. I strongly recommend that she be granted part or all of this scholarship.

Linda Lennox lives with her grandmother, one of our members, Mrs. Thomas Passons, at 634 N. Walnut Avenue. Linda's parents are divorced, her mother is mentally sick and lives in Chicago, and Linda is attempting to provide for herself on the basis of approximately $60 per month provided by her father. In the last year we have seen Linda experience great spiritual growth and feel that she is one of our most promising young Christian women. She has a great desire to enter Freed-Hardeman College this fall as a freshman but will have to borrow all the necessary funds so to do. I strongly recommend her as one in deep need of financial help and spiritual encouragement which such a scholarship provides.

These two young women are above reproach in their character and have demonstrated definite traits of spiritual leadership. They both have an unusual desire to attend Freed-Hardeman College. I recommend to the committee that the scholarship be divided equally between these two girls.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
